The higher the bets, the bigger the wins!- Bug fixes, gameplay optimization, and various renovations.Keep spinning & get winning, Players!The Scatter Slots Team Been playing a couple months now. Losing a bit of its former appeal. Takes quite awhile to get through the daily stuff and it takes too many points after doing the required 2 max bets, along with the several 100 spins. Won't go to free spins often enough to offset the points loss. All of this to get 2.5 mill. I'm in a negative flow, and don't know the cheats! Always comes down to the same thing, spend money to play free slots. VIP Slots require huge bets to play and results in using all your coins without paying out only to reach the same old buy more coins option. Once you realize this is all it's about, it ruins one of the best games available, as far as the amount of work put forth for detail and graphics. Loosen up guys! This is my update entry: I have gone as far as using all the options except the pay to play free slots option. I deleted the game and started over and once again depleted all my coins. So the keep playing advise I was given by the designers of the game turns out to be bogus advice as well. You go to all the trouble of building this great slot game with all of its wonderful features and then won't allow folks to win, and be momentarily excited about playing your slot game. Just doesn't make much sense. So tell me how one goes about winning or I am left with only one alternative, press the delete button. Hello! Thanks for contacting us. We're sorry to hear that you feel this way. We do understand your frustration. Losing never makes us happy. But it's just a part of the game. Your winning doesn't depend on whether you spend money to buy coins or not. All our players have equal chances. Everything is based on luck! We designed our game in such a way to keep it interesting and challenging for players. And of course, there are easy levels and some are difficult ones. But don't give up! We believe that fortune is on your side.Keep spinning and may the luck be with you! This game is definitely worth playing and it's fun, but I'm still trying to figure it out, Today is my first day and the only reason I'm playing it is because someone else suggested it to me through some app? not sure where that message came from but most definitely have respect for this person and she said it was better then Slotomania! Really I thought so I had to give it a try. Not what I'm use too but like I said it's my first day and the only option I have to play is go down a path, it is different then Slotomania in a good way, because some games that you play in the same manner as yours I wouldn't play normally because I don't like them, your game is absolutely more entertaining. It seems that the next step is connected to the step before somehow (still learning). I'm not one to go and read on how to play the game, I just like to get in and spin to see what happens, maybe I should read lol@ Update you all on this game later... one thing I would have liked is to have the opportunity to keep playing some of the games more then having to move on, you all have put a good game out there, you should be proud of yourselves, keep up the great work Please Waited till I had 170 million coins. Played relatively conservative at 1 mil and 2 mil bets. First bet of 5 mil win 15 mil and then only 5 wins more than bet and 10 free spins at a 2 mil bet won 3 mil coins which happened during a 2x win stage. Not a single bonus. Just a coin stealing game to get you to buy one of the MANY packages of coins and card packs they continually advertise.After a response to my above review and reading other review responses I notice a decided lack of understanding why we play these games. To the many complaints about it being a great game with great graphics but in which you must continually buy coins to keep playing. They respond almost the same all the time. Thanks for your concerns, keep playing and your luck will change. These are free slots. Yet are they free if in order to play longer than 15 minutes you need to keep buying more coins. They say they want a real casino experience. I go to Vegas and do better there with real money than I do these FREE games. Lol no I don't always win, but I get a free room, lunch, drinks, and play all day even when I end up losing. But since they have a great game and people pay, they will disregard the complaints about inability to continue playing without buying coins. Short sightedly because if I did get more time playing when I bought coins, I might think about buying again because time is money. I would hope to get more entertainment time for my dollar. Hello, Jeff! It's upsetting you have such feelings after playing our game. Nevertheless, we would like to remind you that we created our game so our players could have fun, and it is completely free to play, so there are a lot of ways to complete missions and win coins without making any purchases. Your luck is definitely around the corner, so don't lose your courage and stay tuned!
